This quaint twin home with wrap around porch in the back corner of town offers affordable living in a well-maintained quiet corner lot duplex. Have peace of mind when you step inside this clean and cared home with major upgrades and newer construction in window replacements, metal roof, furnace, appliances, and more. Original wood work and the classic architecture has been preserved, and features three good-sized bedrooms and a full bathroom, and first floor living room overflows expanded into an expanded dining room area providing ample space for gathering. Essential appliances included with a refrigerator, stove, dishwasher, washer, and dryer. Charming little workshop/garage in rear, lends to a one car off street parking space on side and provides, adding to the convenience of this end of alley, corner location. This home presents an excellent opportunity for those seeking a well-located, low-traffic quietest residence in the heart of Lykens. Come see it today!
